2. SUBWAY STOPS

If you leave your car at the Yorkdale or Wilson Subway stops close to the 401, and come down on the Subway, you should get off at the King Street stop - we are right there.

If you drive all the way, you would take 427 south from the airport and east onto the Gardner expressway. Get off at the Bay/York exit. (Keeping to the left lane once you are off the Gardner Expressway.) Proceed north onto York Street and turn right onto Adelaide Street (One way only).

There is a lot of parking around here. The Bay Adelaide Centre and ScotiaBank Tower offers daily parking.

3. GETTING AROUND

Public Transit - The Toronto Transit Commission (TTC) operates a world class public transit system. The clean and easy-to-follow system includes subway, bus and streetcar routes.

Single Adult Fare is $2.25 CDN

NOTE: Exact change or token/ticket is needed for boarding buses and streetcars and some subway stations. Transfers between vehicles and lines are available for continuous trips.

Taxis - Meters start at $2.50 and increase at $0.25 increments. A typical trip in downtown Toronto will cost $7 to $10 dollars depending on traffic.

GO Transit - Traveler's can catch the bus from York Mills, Yorkdale and Bay St. subway stations.

4. BUSINESS HOURS

Most office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Friday. Most shops are open from 10 a.m. to 5:30 or 6 p.m., Monday to Saturday. Many store hours are extended to 8 or 9 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays, and most stores are open Sundays 12 noon to 5 p.m.

5. TELEPHONE

The emergency number for all health, safety and crime emergencies is 911. Dial 411 for an operator to aid with locating a number. Dialing 0 will also get you an operator for general assistance.

Pay phones cost 25 cents per call. Phones do not give change, but will return coin if call is not completed. Phone credit cards are available at many convenience stores.

Toronto is in the 416 area code, which needs to be dialed before dialing the seven-digit phone number. Some calls to the 905 area are local, but require dialing the 905 before the seven-digit number. When dialing long-distance numbers, start with a 1, then the area code, followed by the seven-digit number.
